

City of El Paso
Museums and Cultural Affairs Department

The Honorable Adair Margo, Chairman
President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities and
Yolanda Alameda, Director
Museums and Cultural Affairs Department

Invite you to a breakfast discussion with
Dolores Gomez Barzune
Arts Advocate

Topic: Fundraising for the Arts

Tuesday, September 26, 2006
9:30-11:00 am
RSVP by September 22, 2006
915.532.1707

El Paso Museum of Art
One Arts Festival Plaza
El Paso, TX 79901

Continental breakfast to be served

Dolores Gomez Barzune has been a community volunteer for over 33 years. A former music and art teacher she is involved in arts education and arts advocacy. She is the former Chair of the Cultural Affairs Commission for the City of Dallas. A former chair of the Board of Governors of the Dallas Symphony, she and her husband chaired the Centennial Celebration for the Dallas Symphony; a year long celebration anchored by a trip to Carnegie Hall and Texas cities ending with a 21 day European Tour. Mrs. Barzune serves as Secretary for the Executive Board of the Dallas Symphony and is part of an advance committee charged with the design of the Symphony's upcoming new $100 million dollar Endowment Campaign. In addition, she has sat on the Advisory Council for the College of Fine Arts at the University of Texas in Austin, the Executive Board for the Meadows School of the Arts at Southern Methodist University. She serves on the Dallas Planning Advisory Growth and Excellence Board for Texas Woman's University Dallas campus and Texas Woman's University Foundation Board.

Mrs. Barzune sits on several other foundation boards including The Dallas Symphony Foundation, ARTS Partners Council, on the Executive Board of the Dallas World Salute, Dallas County Community College District Foundation, the Dallas Center For The Performing Arts Foundation Board of Directors. She is also Director of the Trinity Trust Foundation and is a former president of the Association of Major Symphony Orchestra Volunteers and Board of Director's American Symphony.